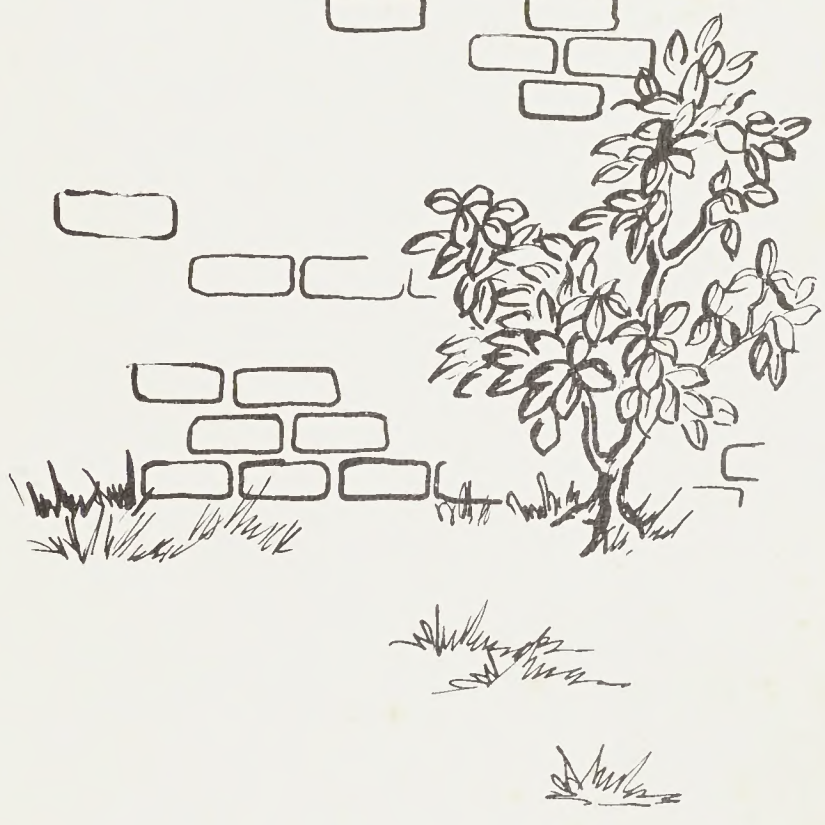
J. F. WEBB HIGH SCHOOL



WILDCAT

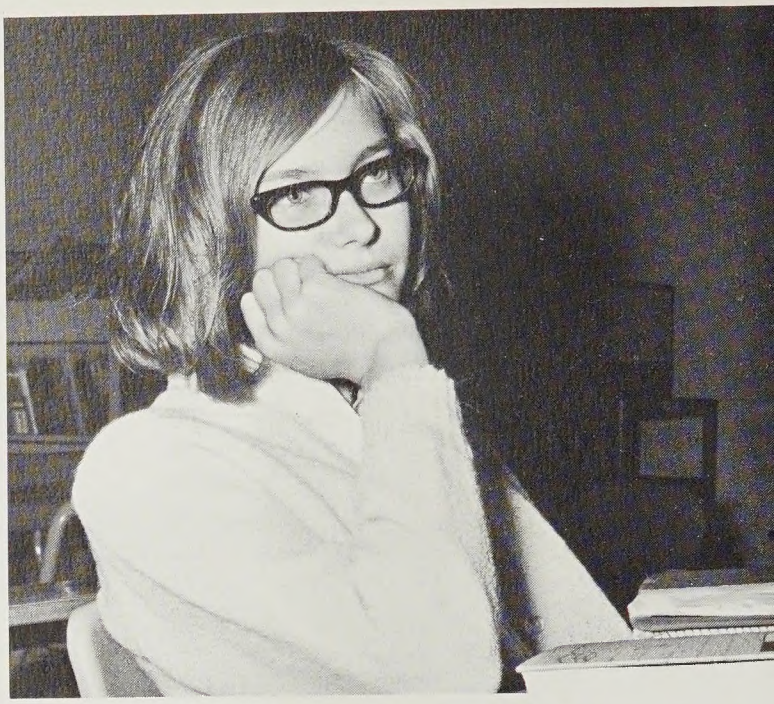
1969

To our grand old Alma Mater,
Now we lift our voice in song,
J. F. Webb, dear Alma Mater,
May your glory be rich and long.

We, thy loyal sons and daughters,
Seek to keep thy glory bright,
Going forward in thy service
As we follow in thy might.

In the hills of Carolina
'Neath skies so clear and blue,
There stands our Alma Mater–
J. F. Webb we honor you.

Once again we pause to greet thee,
And we'll always sing thy praise,
As thy glowing inspiration
We remember all our days.



Often the faces speak
what words can never say.
. . Carl Sandburg

Portraying Webb . . . an atmosphere . . . a way of life . . . an education . . . is not easily done in a few words.

Though it may take a few years, we soon learn that Webb is more than a concrete and brick establishment; it is the expression of a brilliant and colorful way of life.

Webb is vital. New rooms are built, more land is cleared; something new and different is always happening. We live in a kaleidoscopic world of art exhibits and physical education classes, senior term papers and frog dissection, the smell of baking bread and the tapping of a lone drum. Soon we realize that each tradition and each change, each principle and each freedom is solely Webb.

At Webb, we have unmistakably felt the growth, if not the birth of a new social, mental, and cultural alertness. We give, we take, and slowly we appear as individuals . . . .a mite different and scantly more aware.

The genuine picture of Webb is, therefore, a flurry of expressions . . . the dignity of success, the pain of failure, the anticipation of a ball game, the stimulation of discovery, the joy and sorrow of growth. These are our fleeting expressions . . . the essence of Webb life.

I will study and get ready, and perhaps my chance will come.
. . Abraham Lincoln

The great teacher is not the man who supplies the most facts, but the one in whose presence we become different people.

. . Ralph Waldo Emerson

Fast approaching is the end of another school year. To some, it is the beginning of a short vacation before once again entering the doors of Webb, one rung higher up the ladder of education. For many of us it is the end of the only way of life we have ever known. Yet all of us look forward to the future with fearless expressions. For we know that, because of you . . . your awareness, your instruction, your guidance, and your sincere interest in us . . . we are prepared to take the next step in life, whatever it might be.

She is a great teacher! Have you heard yourself described that way? You probably have, for though we are careful to hide our deepest feelings they more often than not show through. However we think you are great not only as a teacher, but as a person also. For we know that, regardless of what might happen, you will always be there when we reach out for you . . . willing to listen, console, reprimand, or advise.

Because of our feelings for you . . . respect, esteem, admiration, and love . . . we, the students of J. F. Webb, dedicate the 1969 WILDCAT to you, Mrs. Elizabeth Bunn.

A boy is of all wild beasts,
the most difficult
to manage.
.. Plato

Some days must be dark and dreary.
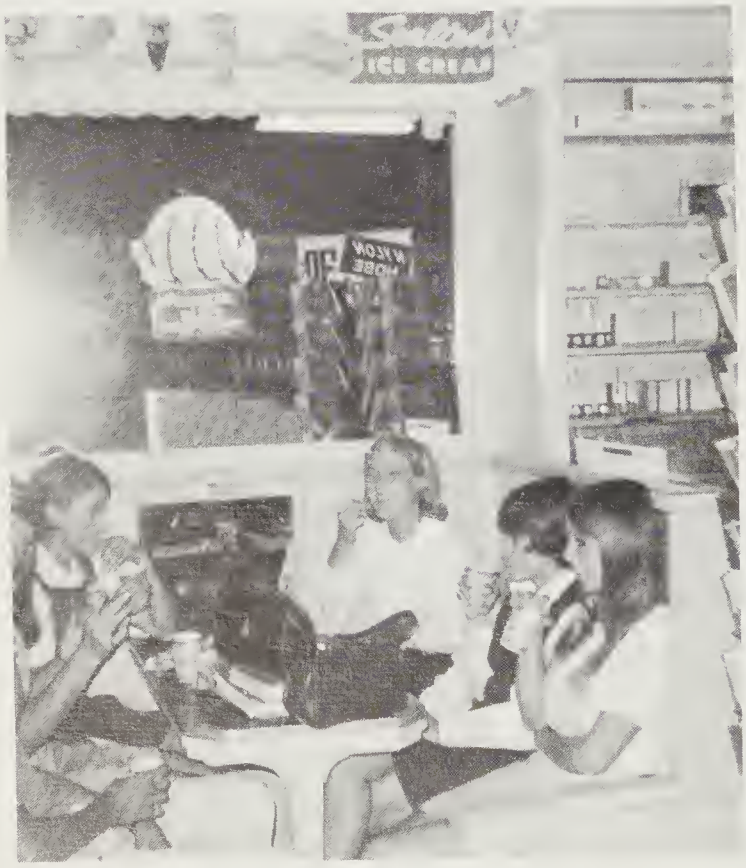
. . Henry Wadsworth Longfellow



I've taken my fun
where I've found it.
. . Rudyard Kipling

GRADUATES

Teresa Currin–Secretary, Gerald Denny-Vice-President, Henry Denny–Treasurer, William Adcock–President.

"We've made it at last" . . . after eleven long years we begin again in September . . . but this time we are Seniors . . . eager to step into our role as school leaders . . . anxious to live each day to its fullest . . . with enthusiasm and determination we make this year the best . . . our school spirit soars to its peak . . . another winning Homecoming float . . . our last football game . . . SAT and Achievement test . . . our final basketball tournament . . . our last Jr.-Sr. . . . college applications . . . job interviews . . . wedding plans . . . the future is ours to command . . . the final decisions we must make on our own . . . all too quickly June arrives . . . final victory . . . graduation . . . with sadness we remember how lucky we have been in so many ways . . . with mixed emotions, nostalgia for the past, mingled joy and sorrow for the present and bright new hope for the future we bid farewell to our Alma Mater . . . though we may be separated by time and space the bonds of faith and trust, friendship and love, will always unite in spirit the Class of '69 . . . "The times we've spent together will soon be memories."

Our Seniors?

A sparkling blue-eyed blond captured the hearts of the Senior Class this year. She is Jan Elizabeth Hart, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hart, III.

Tomboyish, effeminate, and lovable . . . Jan is a typical little girl. She likes fancy dolls, riding bicycles, playing with her baby sister, hunting, and snow. She describes her pet bloodhound, Wrinkles, as playful because "he always plays with rocks and tries to eat them."

Jan has high aspirations for her future. She says, "I don't want to be anything. Just a Mama!"

The Class of '69 is proud to have this cute little girl as their mascot. All the Seniors wish for Jan a truly happy and successful future.

Motto

"None so fine as '69."

Juniors

Peggy Bryan–Secretary, Dot Williford–Treasurer, Harry Dixon–
President, Frank Hielcma–Vice-President.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bunn, Junior Advisor

The Junior Class takes a look at the past year . . . they see expressions . . . of joy . . . of work . . . of pep . . . of fun . . . of worry . . . of envolvement . . . of satisfaction . . . They see college boards . . . preparatory tests . . . merit exams . . . grades . . . but then . . . their Junior-Senior . . . class rings . . . and they finally realize it was all worth it . . . But they turn now . . . and prepare to do things for the last time instead of the first . . . they look up and suddenly see themselves . . . not as Jolly Juniors . . . but . . . the Class of 1970.

We won't ask what's going on, girls. And please don't try to explain.

Help! Are we being invaded?

Why so glum, Frank? You couldn't ask for a lovelier harem--could you?

It can't be but so bad, Nancy.

Of course we never run to lunch, Mr. Stroud!

Student Council

Encouragement of student involvement . . . provision of a place for student expression . . . promotion of an active and influential part in national, state, and local student councils . . . creation of an atmosphere of unity and useful purpose . . . aims of a well-coordinated, determined organization . . . J. F. Webb's Student Council.

Led by four officers elected by and from the student body, the council entered into the school year with enthusiastic plans. Their main goal–to provide varying activities of student envolvement. A delicious barbecue, fun-filled dances, thoughtful service projects . . . success was their reward.

To you, Student Council members, we express our gratitude for leadership and service.

Melina Bifulco–Secretary, Davis Smith–Vice President, Jackie Clark–Treasurer.

Mrs. Lou Watkins and Mrs. Betty Pace–Advisors.

Wildcat

From our hands to yours . . . the final step of a very high ladder. All the other steps . . . the selling of ads, the drawing of layouts, the composition of copy and headlines, the identification of pictures . . . have passed. With each step we have tried to create a unique annual. Through pictures and momentoes we have strived to capture the expressions of our 1968-1969 school year, a memorable one indeed.

My deepest appreciation goes to the staff and to Mrs. Kay Slaughter for the time and effort which they have spent and the sincere interest which they have shown in the success of this annual.

To you, the students of Webb, I present with pride the finished product . . . . . your 1969 WILDCAT.

The Spectator

Amateur journalists at work . . . collaborating to meet the deadlines . . . anxiously checking proofs . . . the Spectator staff in motion. Through club activities, editorials, jokes, and pictures the newspaper staff keeps the students well-informed on the "What?, When?, and Wheres?" of Webb.

A four page paper, The Spectator is supported by the advertisements of Oxford merchants. It comes out seven times annually. Whether through typing, selling ads, taking pictures or writing expository, creative, or controversial articles a staff member will get valuable training and experience. And most important, he will learn the meaning of a very important word in meeting a printer's deadline . . . "responsibility."

Glenda Currin–Editor.

Le Cercle Francais

Dal Mackie—President.

"Parlez-vous Francais?" An enthusiastic yes! will ring from all French I, II, and III students.

As they turn around and face the past year, each club recognizes its own achievements and fun in carrying out French Club activities. For French I it was perhaps their first Mardigras or the Christmas spirit they found in giving presents to a needy family. French II also presented an underprivileged family with a "Joyeux Noel" and along with French III enjoyed the Mardigras. Definitely the Christmas French dinner carried out by French III was the highlight of their year.

It was the joint effort of all parts, however, which brought "The French Club Arch of Triumph" second place in the 1969 Homecoming parade.

With a trio of interested advisors, Le Cercle Francais has grown into one of the most active groups at Webb.

Mrs. Betty Pace, Mrs. Gladys Satterwhite, and Mrs. Gertrude Washington—Advisors.

Latin I Club

Latin I Officers: Mac Traynham, Waverly Barnes, Beverly Royster, Lynn Moss, Mary Thomas, Joseph Stovall.

Webb's Latin Club this year is represented by the seventh state officer in twelve years: Glenda Currin, N.C. JCL secretary. She, with Debra Fox, conducted the membership workshop at the national convention in East Lansing, Michigan, last summer. They accepted an encore to do it again for the state convention in Chapel Hill in April.

Cognoscamus "Romans" have again been trying to boost their national publicity rating as last year. The club won fifth place in the nation at the 1968 convention, coming up from ninth place the year before.

This year's state convention April 12th found Oxford JCL'ers well represented and competing in the several contests.

The annual banquet April 19th was the highlight of the year. The traditional dance, this year choreographed by Debra Fox and Joy Wilkie, was a salute to Aeolus, god of the winds. Harry Dixon and Debra Fox reigned as emperor and empress.

Several from Webb are looking forward to attending JCL National Convention in New Orleans in August. In the past ten years 113 from Oxford have attended nationals.

Girls

Monogram Club

Boys

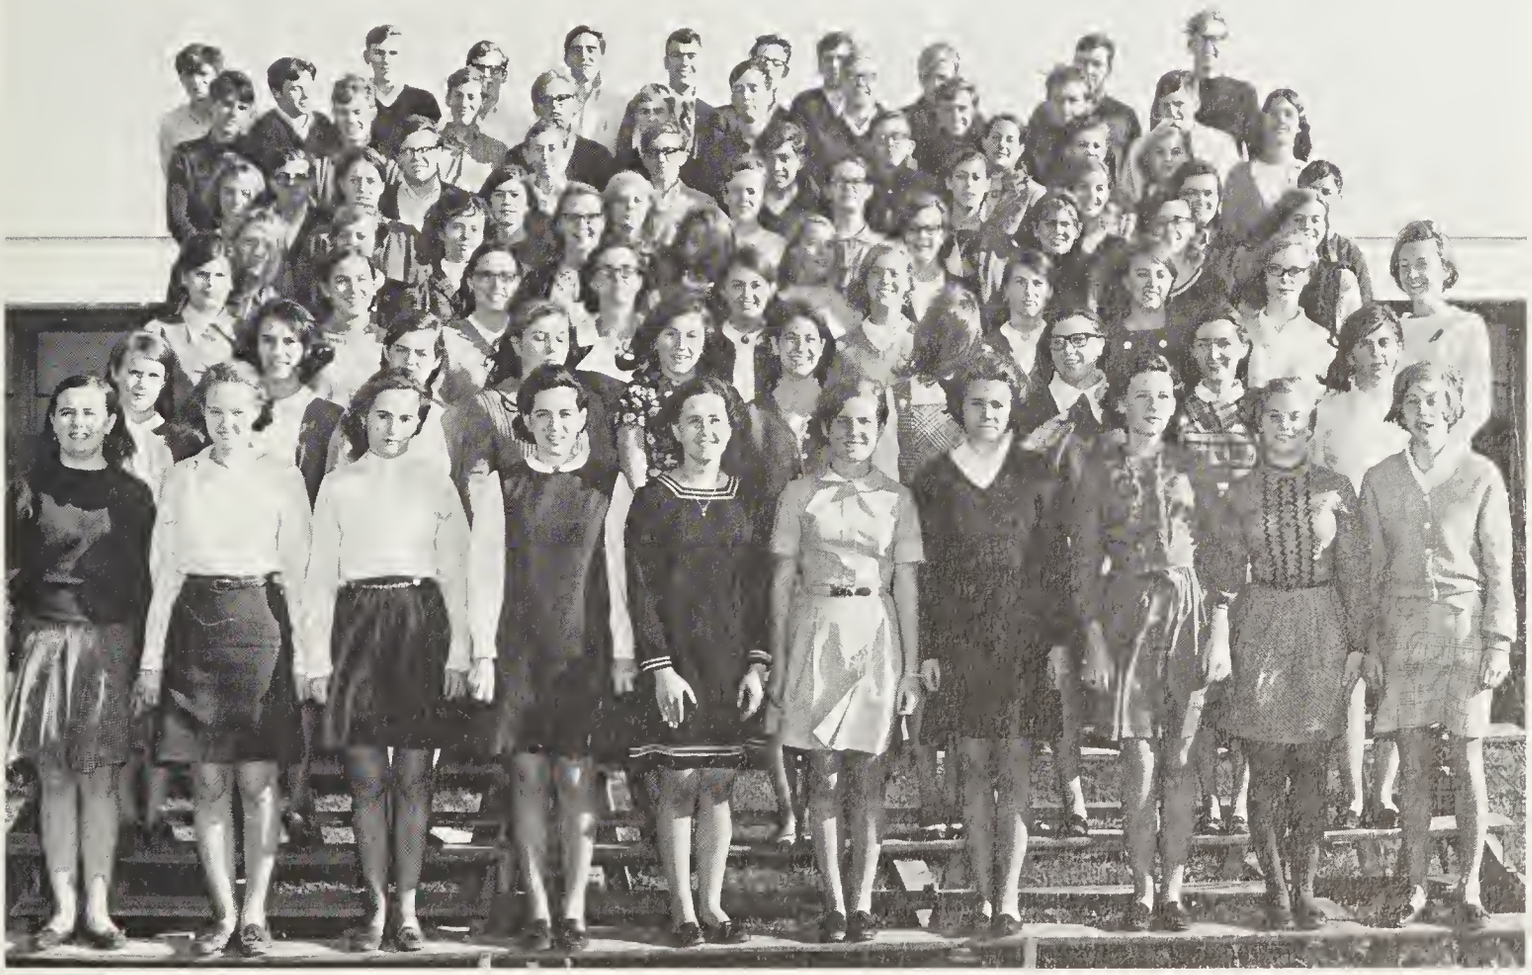
Good sportsmanship and fair play are the slogans of the Monogram Club as these lettermen in athletics seek to build school spirit. Through their program and daily living, the club members encourage one another to maintain a creditable scholastic average and an exemplary conduct record becoming to a student who has earned a Webb athletic letter. They hold the responsibility of assisting the coaches in maintaining decorum at all games and upholding the dignity of the Monogram Club.

Mrs. Tullie Johnson–Advisor, Cathy Daniel–Treasurer, Tommy Currin–Vice-President, Hamlin Landis–President, Ivy Lawrence–Secretary, Mr. Ronald Travis–Advisor.

Science Club

Many discoveries are being made in the world of science each day. Students at Webb have the opportunity of exploring the "hows" and "whys" of these scientific happenings by joining the Science Club.

Through the use of films, guest speakers, and field trips, Science Club members strive to become informed and involved in the field of science. It is hoped that some club members will obtain further education and adopt professions in the field of science. However, all members benefit from an important increase in practical scientific knowledge.



Key Club

The Key Club, now in its second year at Webb, is an international organization for a select group of dedicated young men. Affiliated with the Oxford Kiwanis Club, the J. F. Webb High School Key Club strives to build home, school, and community through numerous service projects.

In carrying out this year's Key Club theme, "Influence through Example," local Key Clubbers are trying to exemplify the objects of Key Club International: development of personal initiative and leadership, cooperation in living and working together, service to school and community, and preparation for useful citizenship.

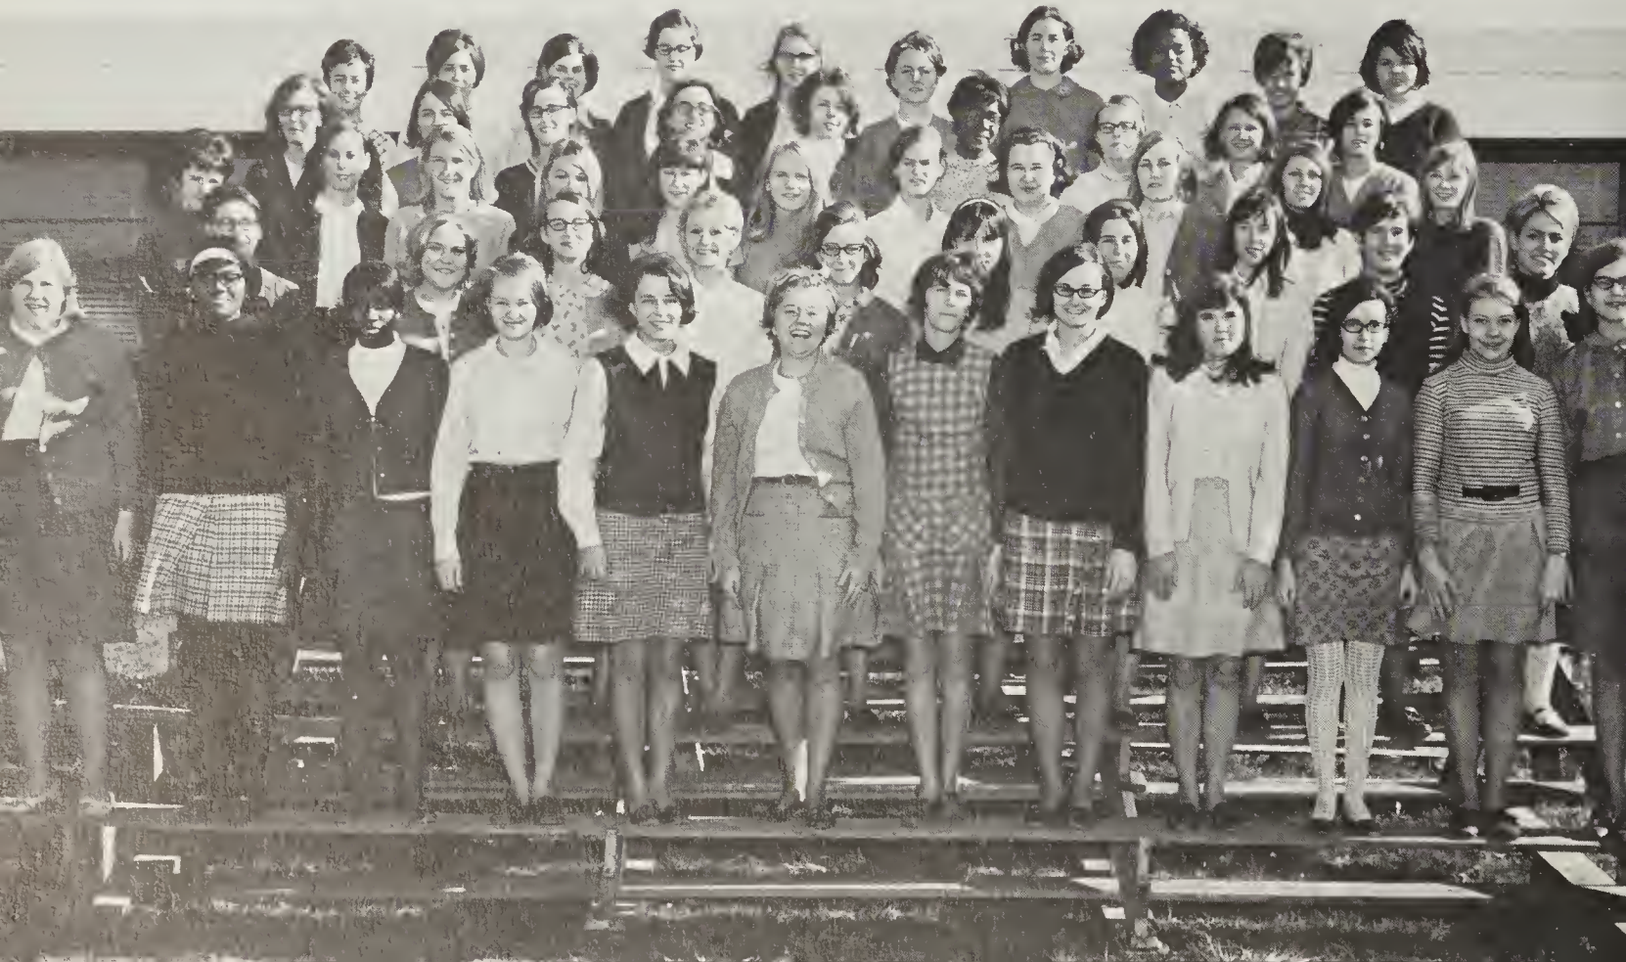
Future Teachers of America

There will always be a critical need for new teachers and new methods of teaching. The Future Teachers of America is a worth while organization which promotes interest in and acquaints students with the functions of the teaching profession. The advancement of education is stressed throughout the membership. Learning of the various branches of teaching has been both informative and revealing to each member.

A good teacher must know her subject well, but she must also know how to present it. By presenting well-planned programs, the Future Teacher has the opportunity of learning the art of teaching. The members are also able to help each other to understand and to recognize their individual potentials for becoming successful teachers.



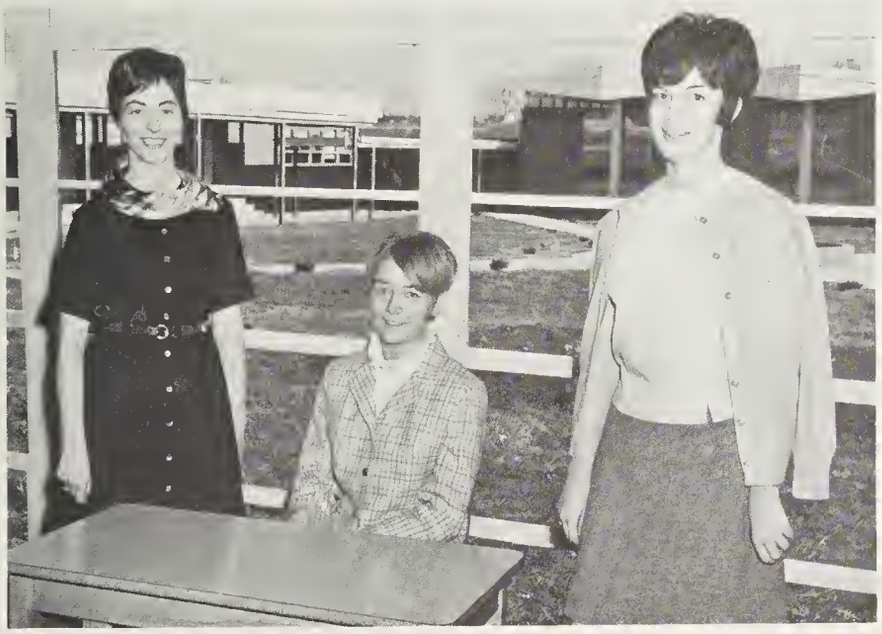
Future Homemakers of America

Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls and boys studying homemaking in high schools of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The over-all goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future.

When FHA was founded the red rose was chosen as the official flower to represent the search of Future Homemakers for beauty in everyday living and to symbolize FHA's beautification projects which are a part of their citizenship training in home economics education and FHA activities.

Such activities fall naturally under the State theme: "Citizenship FHA's Challenge to Cherish" and the projects–"Action Today–Careers Tomorrow, Happiness Is Having Dollars and Sense, and Color North Carolina Beautiful."

One meeting a month is used to carry out projects and programs of the local chapter. The members are able also to attend meetings on the district, state, and national level.



Mrs. Dorothy Pruitt–Advisor, Wanda Dickerson–President, Miss Barbara Stainback–Advisor.

Future Farmers of America

One of Webb's most industrious organizations is the Future Farmers of Americea Club. Some of the main objeetives of this elub are to develop eompetent leadership abilities in young men, to strengthen the eonfidenee of boys in themselves, to develop eharaeter, train for useful patriotism and eitizenship, to eneourage improvement in seholarship and study habits, and to inspire fellow students to be morally elean, spiritually aright, and physieally fit to live a blessed life.

This year Dale Blaekwell, a F.F.A. member, won the State Tractor Driving Contest. The highlight of the year was the Father-Son Banquet.

To sum up the goals of this elub, the J. F. Webb Chapter of Future Farmers of Americea is seeking the very high goal of making men out of boys.

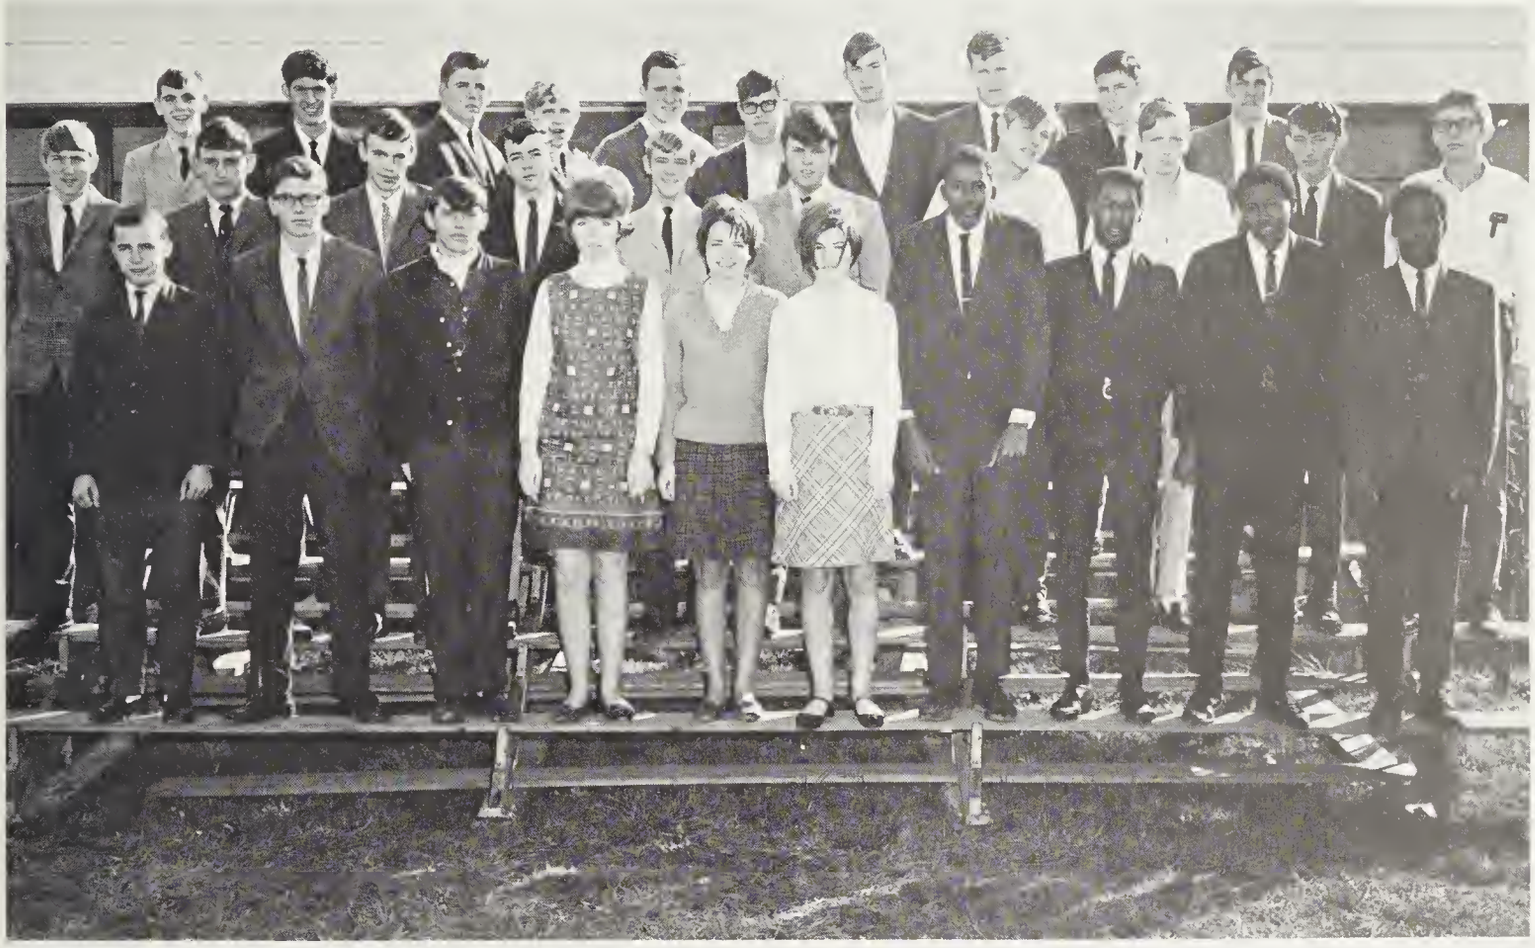
Distributive Education Clubs of America

The Distributive Education Clubs of America play a major role in the future of young students in high schools throughout the United States. DECA has two main purposes: (1) to develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to vocational competence, and (2) to promote understanding and appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship in our free, competitive enterprise system.

The Webb chapter of DECA was started three years ago and has doubled its membership since then. A very effective club, DECA has proved prosperous in the training of many students.



Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

The Industrial Cooperative Training Program at Webb is one of the unique divisions of vocational education. Its main purpose is to build students into productive individuals who can later rise to various levels of management. I.C.T. students are employed in the afternoons at industries producing goods and services in Oxford, Butner, Henderson, and Clarksville, Virginia. The program has greatly expanded during the school year to meet the demands of interested youth. Through the Vocational Industrial Club of America Chapter the I.C.T. students participate in Homecoming activities and treat their employers at the annual Employer-Employee Banquet. Selected students participate in regional and state contests with other school clubs. I.C.T. students are truly preparing for leadership in the world of work!

Wade Thomas–Vice-President, Carolyn Ellington–Treasurer, Larry Teel–Treasurer, Mr. James Hogsett–Advisor, Amy Blackwell–Secretary, Wayne Mathews–President.

Forensic Society

The Forensic Society, always a verbose group, is quickly becoming one of the most outgoing clubs at Webb. After changing coaches three times in the past three years the debating team now finds itself in the capable hands of Mr. Danny Finch, aided by Miss Mary J. Evins.

Being a very active club, the 1968-1969 Forensic Society has often found itself in Chapel Hill for conferences and symposiums where informative lectures and discussions have aided in recent debates. Besides promoting and developing student skill and ability in oral expression . . . argument, public speaking, and debating . . . this society trains students to examine the views of others and to accept defeat as well as victory.

Mr. Danny Finch–Advisor, Miss Mary J. Evins–Advisor, Charlotte Sloan–Treasurer, Becky Lynn Currin–Vice-President, Tommy Currin–President, Kimball Royster–Secretary.

Office Assistants

Sorting out mail . . . taking up absentee reports . . . delivering messages . . . only a few of the many errands delegated to the office assistants.

This year there are six girls from the Junior and Senior classes helping out in the office during their study halls. These girls find that besides being very interesting, office practice is also very educational. They receive training in many areas that may prove useful in future years.

Cathy Daniel–President, Susan Hughes–Vice-President, Cheryl Ramsey–Reporter, Patricia Short–Treasurer, Linda Silver–Secretary.

Library Assistants and Audio Visual Boys

J. F. Webb is the proud possessor of one of the best libraries in Granville County. Helping to make this fact so is the group of students who make up the Library Club. During their study halls these students work in the library doing such jobs as checking students in and out, stamping books and cards, and straightening and alphabetizing books on the shelves. They also have several meetings after school. A selected group of students goes to the Library Club Convention in Chapel Hill, N. C. Besides regular library workers, there are several boys who are trained to work the the audio-visual equipment. These boys are a great help to many of the teachers.

Every day approximately 500 students ride buses to and from Webb High School. There are 16 dedicated regular bus drivers who together cover a round trip route of around 750 miles each day. To each of these drivers and to all the substitutes go our thanks and appreciation for their great service to us, the students of Webb.

Pep Club

Anna Tarry–Treasurer, Susan Fox–President, Mrs. Betty Davis–Advisor, Benjie Hester–Secretary, Frank Hielema–Vice-President.

Congratulations are in order to J. F. Webb's newly organized Wildcat Pep Club. The co-operative work of the Pep Club and cheerleaders opened a whole new avenue of interest at Webb High School. It has provided opportunities for more students to become personally involved in athletics. As a result of hours of hard work, planning, and good times, this Wilcat Pep Club sincerely and successfully lives up to its motto: We Serve With Spirit and Sportsmanship.

J. F. Webb Band

Perhaps one of the most dedicated organizations at Webb this year was the Webb High Band. The members of this band practiced during their sixth period class every day. Many diligent hours were also spent practicing on Monday nights and Tuesday afternoons, not to mention the hours spent by each individual at home.

The marching Webb band and majorettes paraded their way into the fall with colorful uniforms, precision marching, and rousing renditions of the "Alma Mater" and "Cotton Candy." They evoked excellent school spirit as they paraded at various pep rallies and home football games. Special performances included Christmas parades in several towns and The Fireman's Day Parade in Creedmoor.

As a concert band, the Christmas concert, the Parent concert, and the Spring concert were the highlights of the year. The many long hours of practice were recognized by the high quality of these performances.

At various times during the year the Pep Band has taken the place of the larger band. This band, composed of the more experienced players, has instilled even more a rousing sense of school spirit in the students and faculty of Webb.

As reward for a job well done in all these phases, the Webb band now enjoys fun, relaxation, and competition at the Sun Fun Festival at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Mr. J. D. Wrenn—Director, Mr. Curtis Tillotson—Assistant Director.

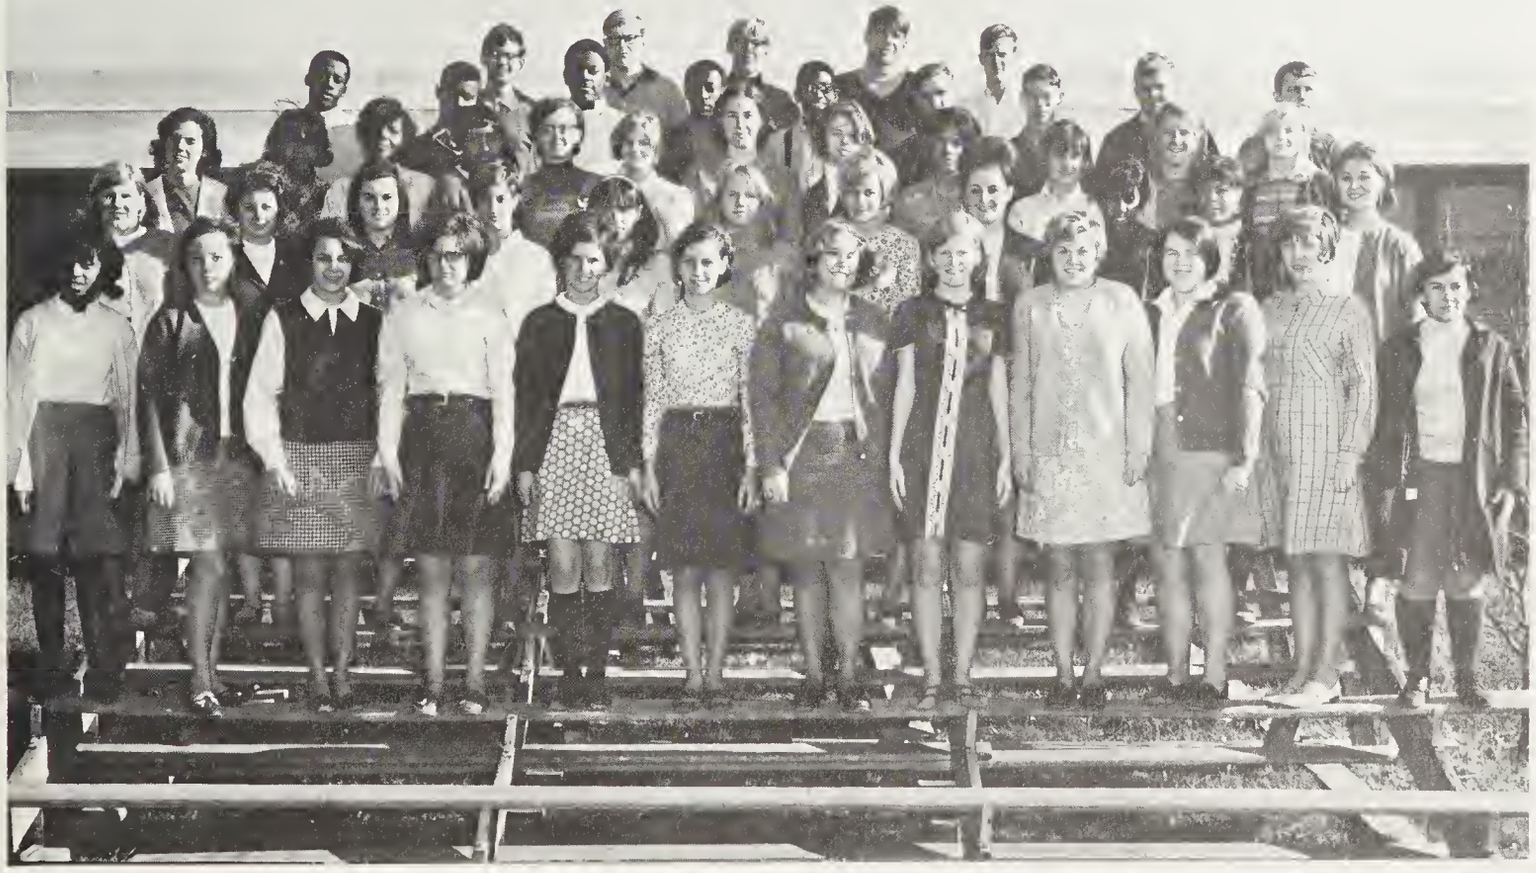
Mixed Chorus

Sybil Royster–Accompanist–Treasurer, Debbie Daniel–Social Chairman, Robbie Watson-Secretary, Jimmie Peebles–Vice-President, Jackie Clark–President.

Who can get by with singing Christmas Carols in October? The Mixed Chorus. Because of the large number of students interested in being in the chorus, it must divide and meet two periods. This year the Mixed Chorus includes a total of 54 students of which 23 are sopranos, 14 are altos, 13 are basses, and, last but not least, 2 are tenors. Along with the Girls Chorus, the Mixed Chorus presented a spring concert and sang for the school's graduation exercises.



Girls Chorus

When there is music in the air you know the Girls Chorus is somewhere near. Although there are only sixteen members, these girls really know how to sing. They proved it at Christmas when they presented a program for a local teachers group. The chorus also presented a Spring Concert with the Mixed Chorus.

These talented young ladies hope that by separating themselves from the Mixed Chorus they have established a tradition at Webb which will continue, growing bigger and better each year.

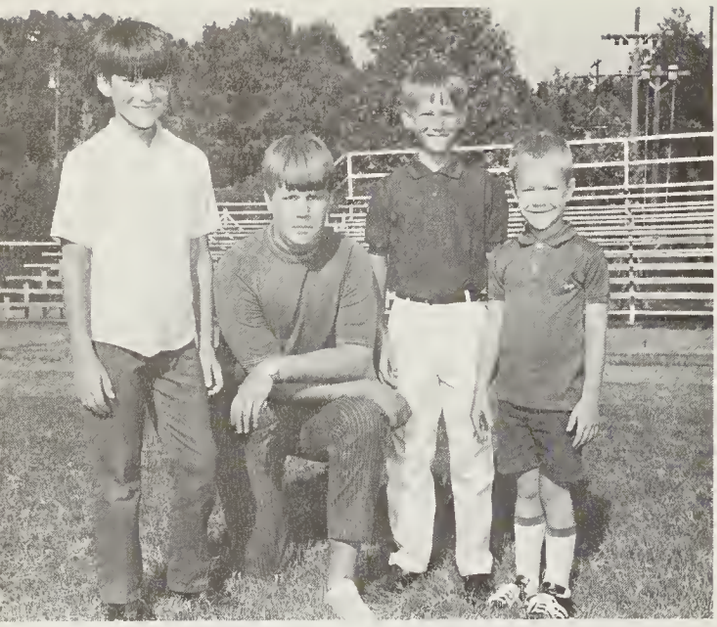
Athletics

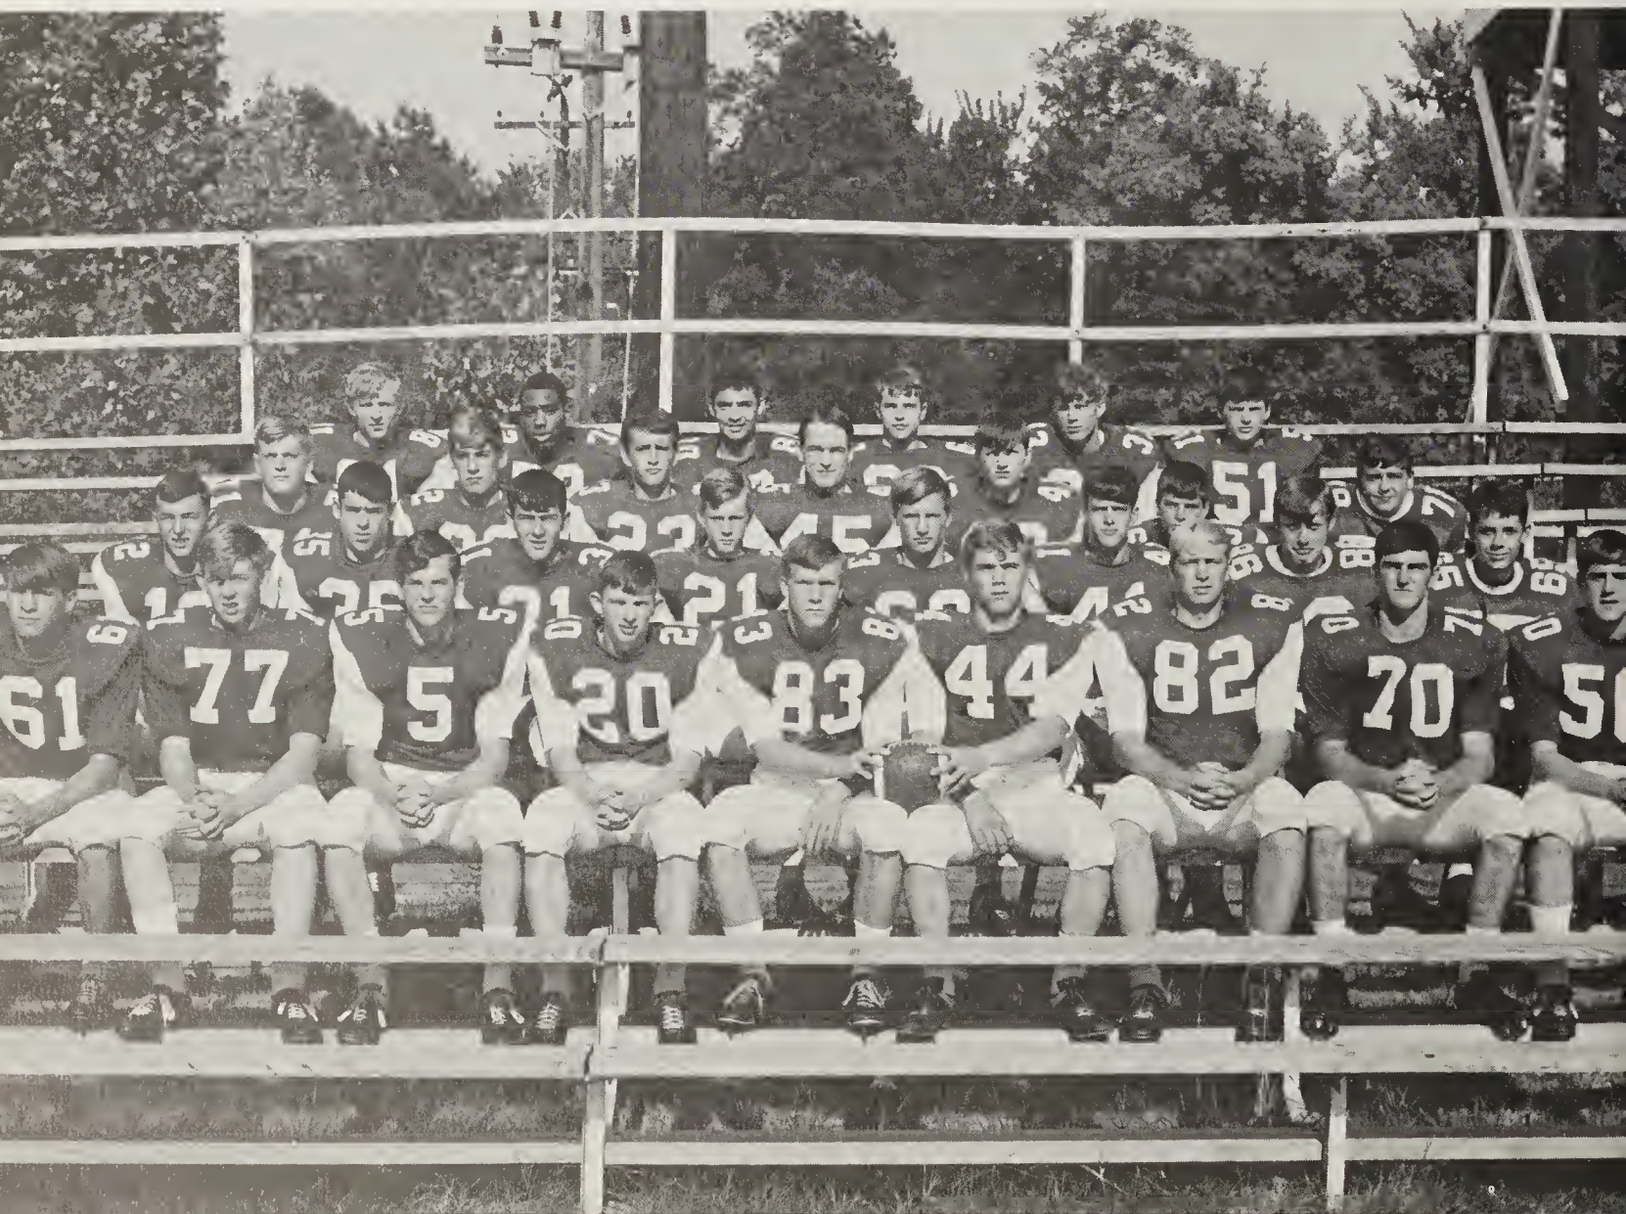
Varsity Football



Managers–Ricky Dworsky, Pearl Dixon, Martin Fox, Jeff Gravley.

A fairly successful season was enjoyed this year by Webb's varsity football team as they experienced five wins and five losses in rigid District III 3-A competition. Marking the season were great wins over the Henderson Bulldogs and the powerful Chapel Hill Wildcats and capping it was an explosive Homecoming victory over the Orange Panthers of Hillsborough.

Coaches–Steve Holleman, Jim Gravley, Van Wood.



Co-Captain Harry Dixon, Coach Gravley, Co-Captain William Adcock.

Webb's Wildcats entered their '68-'69 season with four returning lettermen. Under the direction of a new coach, Steve Holleman, our Wildcats began a rigid District III 3-A schedule. Defeating county rival, South Granville with a 49–46 victory, they were off to a good start. High spots of their season include two easy wins over our arch rival, Henderson, and a 52–51 overtime victory over Jordon. Dal Mackie, a returning Senior, led the Wildcats in scoring with a 15–5 average, and Bernard McNeil, a Junior, followed with a 13. McNeil and Harry Dixon, a Junior, averaged over 12 and 10 rebounds per game, respectively. The highlight of the Wildcats' season was a 55–39 upset over Hillsborough's Orange Panthers.

The prospects for the '69 baseball Wildcats are fairly bright with 10 returning lettermen forming a sound nucleus. Back from last year's team, which posted an 8-4 District III 3-A mark and a 10-5 over-all slate are pitchers Bill Daniel, Sam Phillips, and Bert Sherman, catcher Sammy Hobgood, 2nd baseman Lindsey Overton, shortstop Dal Mackie, infielder Ronnie Tuck, all-conference center fielder Wayne Currin, and outfielders Merlin Young and Mike Ellington.

The schedule includes 13 conference games and 6 non-conference tilts.

The recent editions of Webb baseballers have fared well in league play: the '66 team won the conference championship and the '67 aggregation took the conference divisional crown, while last year's squad finished in third place.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Vivacious, animated, lively, gay, cheerful, bouncy, dedicated . . . the main supporters of Webb's athletic program . . . the Varsity Cheerleaders.

For the past year, these thirteen lovely girls have made ever conceivable effort to increase school spirit. They have made posters, decorated goal posts, held cake raffles, and organized pep rallies in an attempt to strengthen student interest in their athletic program.

Always ready to advise and counsel, Mrs. Jim Gravley was a big help to the cheerleaders. A cheerleader during her high school and college years, she was able to teach the girls many cute, spirited cheers.

Deeply grateful to these girls are the football players, the basketball players, and the student body of Webb . . . our 1968-1969 Varsity Cheerleaders . . . the BEST!

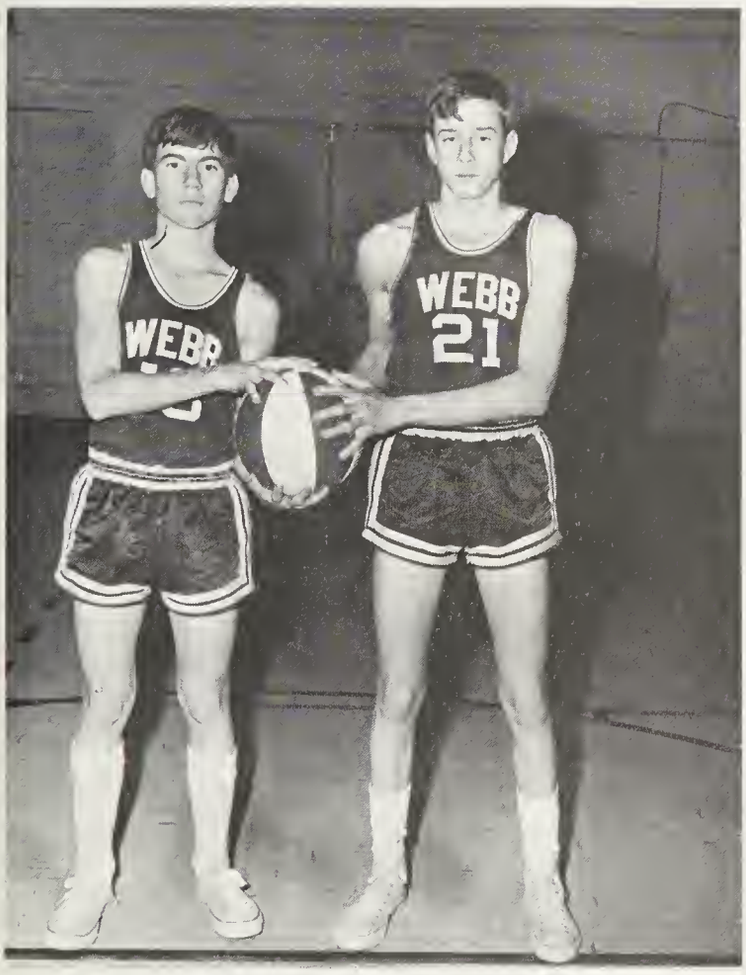
J.V. Football

The J.V. Football team is made up of boys from the ninth grade. Six games were played by this team for their 1968 season. They eame out of their season with a 2-4 record. Training and experienee for the varsity football squad are reeeived by members of the J.V. team.

Co-Captains–Vern Strother and Stuart Reese.

Coach Pete Strother
J.V. Football and J.V. Basketball



Co-Captains—Mike Peters and Merlin Young.

J.V. Basketball

J.V. Basketball is open to ninth and tenth grade boys. The team has a full season as does the Varsity. From the J.V. team one learns the fundamentals of the game and receives preparation for membership on the Varsity.

This year's J.V. team completed their season with a 5-15 record. They also participated in the newly organized Junior Varsity tournament games.

The cutest baby cats in the world are our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. How could you describe them any other way except full of pep, raring to go, always loyal, unbounding energy, and willing to stand on their heads, if necessary, for our J.V.'s. Nanette Newton leads the group with boundless spirit and loyalty. Then we have those two adorable Hancock girls, Judy and Pat. Have you ever seen two cousins who work harder and longer to boost their teams morale? There's pretty Susan Currin who will cry at the drop of a hat if you slam her J.V.'s. Then comes Gwen Dickerson. She may look quiet but look out—on that court she's a ball of fire. Next we have little mite Elaine Currin. How could anyone have such energy and vitality and be so small. Last but not least is the vivacious "baby tiger" Bess Lawrence. Don't think her claws aren't sharp when the students don't support the J.V.'s.

The J.V. Cheerleaders will always be indebted to their hard working advisor, Mrs. Marilyn Wood, who gave of her time and energy to make them the best J.V. Cheerleaders Webb has ever had.

Homecoming '68

With music swelling in the air and spirit rising to an unprecedented high, Homecoming '68 was a grand success. Things kept right on moving as floats and convertibles followed the band in the best parade that Webb has ever staged.

"Sock it to 'em Wildcats" provided more than a theme for a winning float as the ferocious Wildcats clobbered the Hillsborough Panthers 41-6. With the enthusiastic support of its supporters, our mighty eleven really demonstrated that night the art of football.

But the thrills of Homecoming were not yet over! Queen Lucy was crowned at half-time and Saturday night the Student Council sponsored a "fantabulous" dance. Rendering music were the talented "Esquires" who sang their souls out until nearly midnight. During intermissions and after the dance itself, Webbsters were able to gaze at the carnival-influenced decorations and to reflect upon the memories of Homecoming '68 which time could never erase.

Cinderella Boyd–Parliamentarian, Judy Cash–Treasurer, Susan Corbitt–Secretary, Teresa Currin–Vice-President, Sanne Jones–President.

The National Honor Society was organized at J.F. Webb High School in 1965. Thirty-one seniors were the charter members.

A student must have an average of ninety during their first two and a half years of high school to be eligible for membership in this organization. These students must display qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Marshals

Each spring eleven juniors having the highest scholastic average in their class for the first five semesters in high school are selected as Marshals. The student with the highest average is Chief Marshal.

The duties of the Marshals are varied. They maintain order, usher, and have complete control at all times for any school assembly and at commencement.

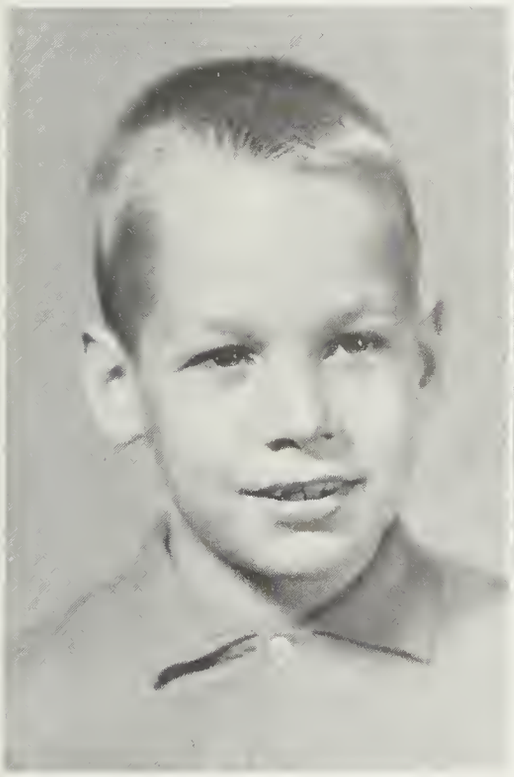
Our new casanova from Roxboro?

Tighten up Lynn, you're worrying Dulcie.

Sorry Jackie, you're not quite old enough for the Miss America contest.



Where are you going, Mrs. Currin?

Notice any resemblence?

Now Paula, aren't you ashamed of yourself?

You're kidding! Our editor?

I guess you and Karen are too old for life jackets, Kay.

Debbie Cutts shy? I doubt it!

Certainly do like that hat, Jeff.

Your report card couldn't be that bad, Al!

Future Homemakers of America!

I don't suppose you've ever heard of that marvelous invention called a comb, Debra?

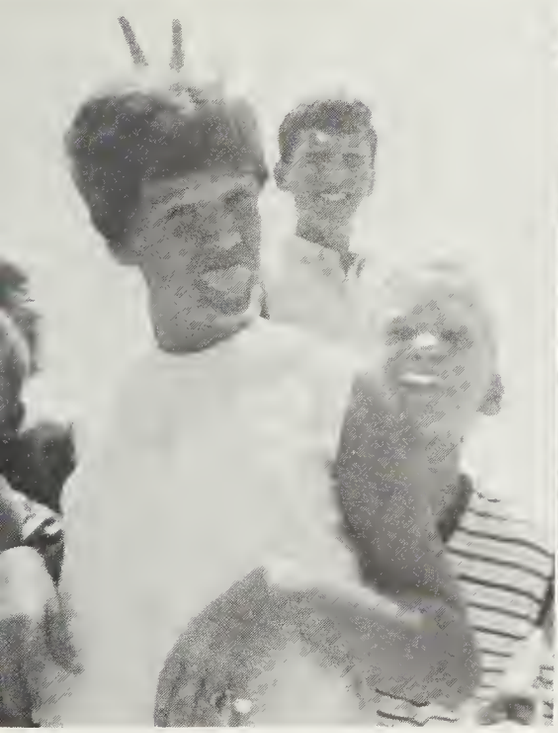
Big deal, Nancy. You're Queen of the Stump!

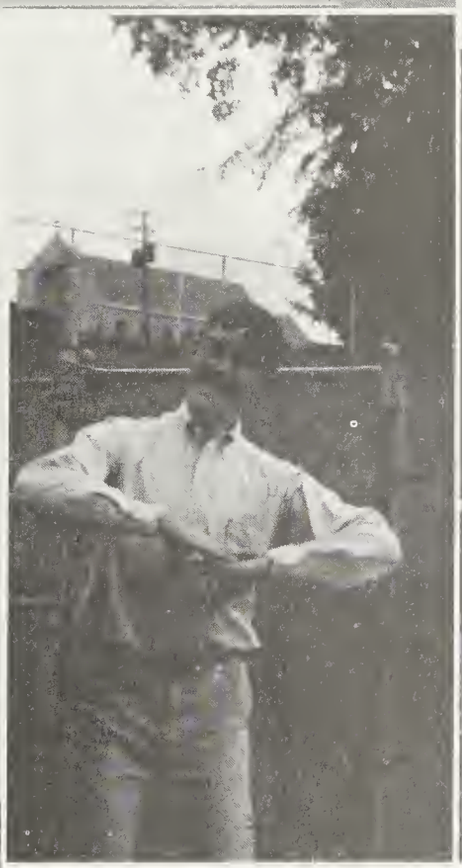
Remember good old Girl Scouts, Nancy?

Now Bill, is that the way a president should act?

Ride 'em, Mary Anne!

Alright, Teresa. We've seen you.

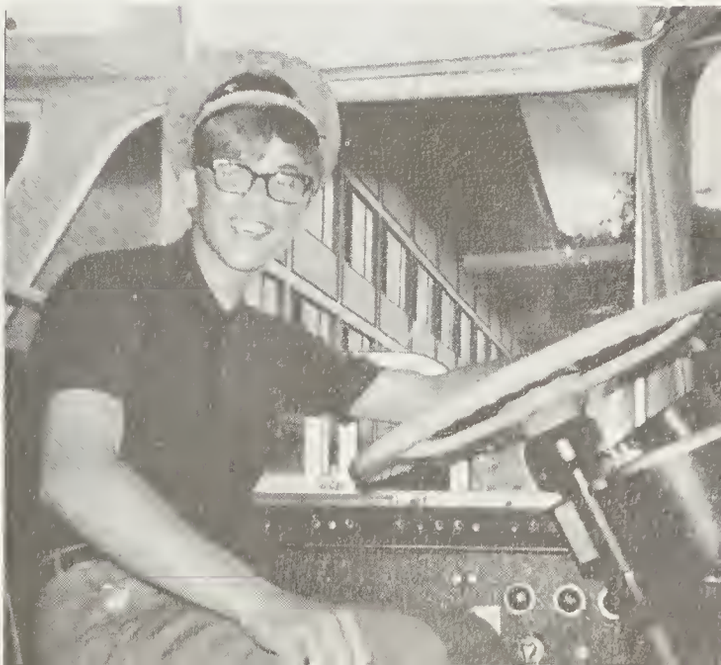




Are you in pain, Jerry?

Going somewhere Bryant?

Please share with Debra, Nancy!



Look Ma!
No cavities

Get those legs up, girls!

Next stop – Jr.-Sr.

You're awful brave, June.

Tricia, don't you know it's impolite to point?

Our Mr. Americas!

Congratulations, Billy.

Mr. Cecil E. Stroud
Principal

Your first words, Mr. Stroud, were spoken to us at the orientation assembly last fall. In talking with us, you revealed your ideas and opinions about us and our school. "I feel the high school students are of the age to be given responsibilities concerning their own conduct and that the students will be appreciative to the point that they will police their own actions. The idea of self-discipline is what we are seeking here. Also, I would like to add that the key to the success of this school year so far is the attitude of the students and the patience of the faculty."

As time passed, we came to realize how true your words were. Never before had so much trust and self-confidence been placed in us. We decided to try to make Webb a place we would all be proud of. With work, determination, and self-discipline we have come very close to achieving this goal.

Now we want to pause and express our gratitude for your guidance and the trust that you have shown in us this past year. Thank you for helping us make Webb, "Our School."
